Las Vegas, NV: The Clark County Republican Party releases the following communiqué:

We are pleased to announce the election of Mr. David C. Williams as Vice Chairman of the Clark County Republican Party (CCRP).

Mr. Williams, an Executive Board member and elected representative of County Commission District C, brings a combination of local, national and international Republican Party leadership experience to the Vice Chairman role. While residing in London he served on the Executive Committee of the United Kingdom Chapter of Republicans Abroad, and participated in pan-European and international activities with Republicans Abroad.

In Nevada, Mr. Williams has been Corresponding Secretary of the Nevada Republican Men's Club, Acting Treasurer of the Nevada Chapter of the Republican National Hispanic Assembly and an active participant in the John McCain for President 2008 campaign.

Mr. Williams' business expertise includes turnaround management, commercial real estate, banking, hedge fund/portfolio management and investor relations. He has also worked for start-up firms in the technology, financial services and commodities sectors. Mr. Williams is a consultant to Las Vegas-based Hoffman Iron and Steel Company, LLC.

A resident of Summerlin, Mr. Williams received his undergraduate degree in Business Administration and Accounting from the University of Kansas, his MBA in International Business and Finance from The University of Texas, and is a CPA in the State of Maryland. He is fluent in Spanish and has varying fluency in other languages.

In the Las Vegas business community, he is a member of the Nevada Chapter of the Turnaround Management Association, the CEO-CFO Group and the Nevada Biotechnology and Bioscience Consortium.

We look forward to Mr. Williams' continued contribution and participation as a member of the CCRP leadership team. He may be contacted at 702.258.9184, vicechairman@clarkgop.org.
